Step 3:

Your information will be used to respond to your mail recovery service request. Collection is authorized by 39 U.S.C. 401, 403, and 404. Providing the information is voluntary, but if not provided, we may not process your request in the mail recovery application. We do not disclose your information to third parties without your consent, except to facilitate the transaction, to act on your behalf or request, or as legally required. This includes the following limited circumstances: to a congressional office on your behalf; to financial entities regarding financial transaction issues; to a U.S. Postal Service auditor; to entities, including law enforcement, as required by law or in legal proceedings; and to contractors and other entities aiding us to fulfill the service (service providers). Our privacy policy tells you more about our information practices when you provide personal information to us.

Describe each item in your mail piece. Search for each item's type or select its item category.

- You can add multiple items.
- You can review the details for, edit, or delete each individual item.
- While adding a new item, you cannot edit existing items.
- Describe the container (suitcase, trunk, duffel bag, etc.) for Luggage and Military items, as well as the contents.

Step 4:

The Postal Service will attempt to find and return your lost item(s), but submitting a search does not guarantee a successful outcome. The Mail Recovery Center will return any item in which we can locate a good address inside the item, or identify the item from the official search request. For the safety of our customers and employees, the Mail Recovery Center cannot search for or return the following items:

- Hazardous Material
- Live Ammunition
- Opened Hair/Beauty Products
- Over the Counter Drugs
- Prescription Drugs
- Perishables/Food
- Handguns - e.g. pistols, revolvers, and other firearms capable of being concealed on the Person, will only be returned to a licensed dealer on your behalf.
